BEST PRACTICES

2023-2024

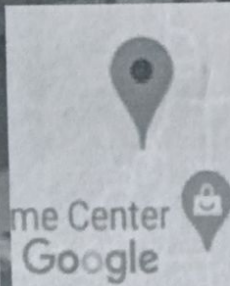

The yoga center at Ganesh College Of Engineering has adopted several best practices to promote holistic wellness and mental health among students and staff. These include daily yoga sessions, workshops on mindfulness and meditation, and training in advanced yoga techniques. The center collaborates with certified yoga instructors and wellness experts to provide evidence-based practices tailored to different age groups and fitness levels. Special initiatives like Yoga for Stress Management during examination periods and Community Yoga Outreach Programs for local residents have strengthened its impact. These practices align with the institution's vision to foster physical, mental, and emotional well-being in alignment with the values of sustainability and inclusivity.
